

Says

What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying?

> I like the content of my subscribing youtube channels

World's Top Youtubers get more money from their youtube channels. Youtuber making videos for satisfying their subscribers Thinks

They need a variety of skills to create good content

They want unique perspective and attractive stories from YouTubers Their thinks their favourite Youtuber understands them better than their own friends

Grab the attention of your viewers within 10secs

I think they want to share their contents with large audience

Their thinks their favourite Youtuber understands them better than their own friends Happy and satisfied with their latest uploads and Trending videos

They anxiety with favourite Youtubers for not uploading videos for longtime

Some of them gets attraction with their quality

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

See an example

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?

